

spoilers have been redacted

This book is amazing. Once I started reading, I could not stop. 'The Memory Thief' is a book that makes you wonder.

I like how the author lets it capture your mind. Leonie Agnew has designed it with so many twists and turns, it always, always, creates tension. The reader is forever waiting for the next bit.

My favourite part of the book is at the end when [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

People who love the park or completely hate it will love this book. It is perfect for seven-to-ten-year-olds who love fantasy.

I enjoyed this book. I loved how it captured me and how I always felt I needed to just read and read. I could not stop to sleep, could not stop to go to school. I was always reading as I did my jobs.

- Netanya, age 10, National Park