

WORKSHEET: Story structure

Stories need a narrative drive, something pushing the story forward. Try filling out the following 'story template' for Two Wolves and see if you can work out what it is that drives the story.

Two Wolves is the story of _____ (protagonist / main character), a _____

(description of protagonist/main character) who, after _____

(first major story turning point), decides to _____ (character objective that drives the action).

The character is prevented from achieving their goal by _____ (main obstacle or antagonist). We know that _____

(the protagonist/main character) has succeeded or failed when

(achievement that represents success or failure.)

You can see that, after the first turning point, there is something driving the action
– the narrative, in other words.
