

Is This a Plum? Draw Your Own

Is This a Plum? was inspired when father and son authors Dan and Finn were drawing together and realised a plum looks quite a lot like a bum!

When you turn the pages of Is This A Plum? you might see a spoon... a spider... or a plum. But peek through the holes to see the full picture and – SURPRISE! – it's something unexpected: the moon, a tiger, even a hippo's bum!

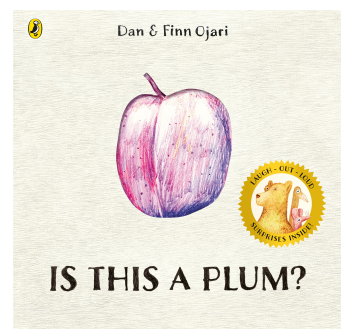

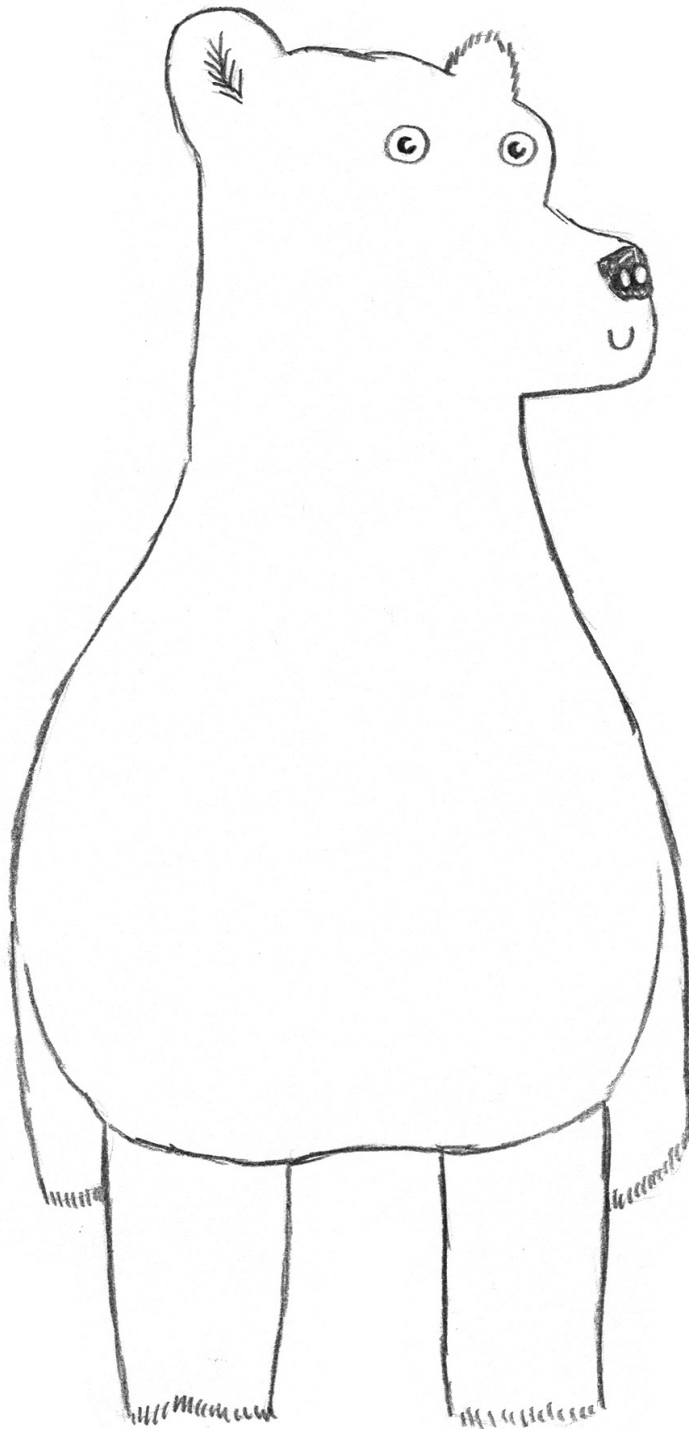

Can you turn this plum into your own unexpected picture?
What do you think it looks like?
